DETAILED ACTION

Election

Applicant's election without traverse of Species 2, subspecies A) i, B) i, and C) iii in the reply filed on 7/17/06 is acknowledged. It is alleged that this corresponds to claims 29-35, 40-49, 53-56, 58, 60-63, 66-80, 84, 86, and 87.

Please note that claims 66-80, 84, 86, and 87 were non-elected in the response of 11/25/05. Further, the current election of B) i means that claims 46-49 are non-elected.

Consequently, the examined claims are 29-35, 40-45, 53-56, 58, and 60-63.

Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

RESTRICTION A

I. Claims 29-31, 35, 40-45, 53-56, 58, and 60, drawn to a method, classified in class 438, subclass 455.

II. Claims 32-34, and 61-63, drawn to a method, classified in class 438, subclass 455.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the subcombination requires two (2) semiconductor structures. The subcombination has separate utility such as by itself.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

RESTRICTION B

- I. Claims 29-31, 35, 40-45, 53-56, 58, and 60, drawn to a method, classified in class 438, subclass 455.
- II. Claims 32-34, and 61-63, drawn to a method, classified in class 438, subclass 455.

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the subcombination requires the semiconductor structure to be formed on a substrate. The subcombination has separate utility such as by itself.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions in each of restrictions A and B are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
